

One-on-One Mentoring Program Mentoring Acknowledgement

1. This is to acknowledge that (Mentor) and (Mentee) are entering into a formal mentoring relationship
2. The mentor will have no contact with the mentee's clients that would create a solicitor/client relationship.
3. The mentee understands that she/he is responsible for personally and independently satisfying her/himself of the soundness of any suggestions, recommendations or advice-like comments made by the mentor.
4. Legal Aid Ontario, employees administering the Mentoring program and the mentor shall have no liability, however arising, from any advice or assistance offered to the mentee.

Mentor _____

Date _____

Mentee _____

Date _____

Note: the above mentoring acknowledgement is adapted from the precedent provided by LPIC/ Practice Pro and found in the booklet "Managing a Mentoring Relationship"

At page 20, LawPro advises " The written document evidencing the relationship does not have to be a signed mentoring agreement. It can be as simple as an e-mail acknowledging the relationship and the terms"