Dear

Re: Freedom of Information Request – Our File No.

Further to your request for information which was received in our office on June 29, 2009 and to which I responded on June, 30, 2009, I enclose additional information which was obtained through a further search of records.

. You requested access to the following information:

- A copy of the complete document, a portion of which you provided to LAO with your letter of January 8, 2009
- Documents related to the 44 million dollars in inflationary costs referred to at the bottom of the first page of the memo, which you indicate are budget documents
- Equivalent documents for every year following 2006

With respect to your request for equivalent budget documents related to the 44 million dollars in inflationary costs, we are providing a copy of the financial statements of LAO for the year ended March 31, 2009, which are considered responsive to your request. No exemptions have been made from these records. These records consist of 19 pages.

In addition, further records are enclosed related to the business strategy development process (Quantum process), which was referred to in the initial records released in previous correspondence. The enclosed records consist of 16 pages. No exemptions have been made from these records.

I trust this information is of assistance to you. I am responsible for the decision to grant you access to these records. You may ask for a review of this decision within 30 days of receiving this letter by writing to: The Information and Privacy Commission/Ontario, 2 Bloor Street West, Suite 1400, Toronto Ontario M4W 1A8, Telephone 1-800-387-0073.

If you decide to request a review of this decision, please provide the Commissioner's office with the following: the file number listed at the beginning of this letter; a copy of this decision letter; and a copy of the original request for information you sent to our institution.

In addition, you must send an appeal fee to the Commissioner's office. That appeal fee for other than personal information is $25.00.

Yours truly,

Robert Ward
President/CEO
