

Grey Bruce Community Legal Clinic

CLINIC CASE WORKER

With a focus on HOUSING LAW

2 YEAR CONTRACT

Do you share our passion for social justice?

We are located in Owen Sound, Ontario, and provide services in clinic law matters to low-income residents of Grey and Bruce Counties, including Saugeen First Nation and Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation.

We are seeking a paralegal or new call lawyer to be an important part of our team. This position will focus on providing tenants legal advice and full representation at the Landlord and Tenant Board; providing Tenant Duty Counsel services; assisting in our community development and outreach projects; and providing public education on housing law. The position will involve working with our community partners to address underlying issues related to homelessness and insufficient housing.

This two year contract will cover a caseworker who is working on a separately funded project within the clinic. Start date is flexible with the earliest start date in mid-February 2026.

QUALIFICATIONS INCLUDE:

- Community Legal Clinic experience is an asset;
- Membership in good standing of the Law Society of Ontario;
- Commitment to social justice, working within an anti-racism and anti-oppression, client-centred, trauma-informed framework, and an understanding of issues of systemic discrimination;
- Commitment to the delivery of high quality legal services to disadvantaged individuals and groups;
- Demonstrated effective oral and written advocacy skills;
- An interest in housing law;
- Ability to work effectively as part of a team;
- Access to a vehicle and willingness to travel throughout Grey and Bruce Counties.

SALARY RANGE: $65,500 to $72,500 based on experience, year of call and education.

Interested candidates should apply in writing no later than January 30, 2026 by 5 pm by submitting a cover letter and resume to:
