Part 1: Probation, shadowing and minimum related experience

Advice Lawyer - Domestic Violence

I agree to be subject to a three-month probationary period, during which I will shadow an experienced member of the Advice-Lawyer Domestic Violence sub-panel, for a period to be specified by the director general, supervisory duty counsel or manager of legal services, at the end of which period the director general, the supervisory duty counsel or manager of legal services shall provide me with performance feedback.

I am a member of the LAO Family Law panel.

I am a member of the Immigration and Refugee Panel and agree to give immigration advice under this program.

I shall attend or view Domestic Violence training courses provided by or approved by LAO, as required by LAO.

Part 2: Professional Development

I will attend administrative/procedural training programs relating to the role of duty counsel.

I am requesting a director general exemption from the training programs because I have demonstrated my ability to comply with LAO's administrative/procedural requirements.

I agree to comply on an ongoing basis with LAO's applicable duty counsel and advice lawyer standards for admission and continued standing.

By selecting this box I affirm that I have read and understood the panel standard requirements and that the information contained herein is complete, true and accurate.
