Note: The Family Panel Standards are available at your district office or on the LAO website at: http://www.legalaid.on.ca/en/info/panel_standards.asp

I am certified as a Specialist in Family Law by the Law Society of Ontario.

Note: If you are certified as a Specialist in Family Law by the Law Society of Ontario, you meet the experience and professional development requirements for Parts 1 and 2 of this form.

Part 1: Minimum related experience

I meet Legal Aid Ontario's minimum related experience or equivalency as set out in section 1(1) or 1(2) of the Family Panel Standards.

Conditional Panel Admission

I do not meet LAO's minimum related experience requirements and am requesting a director general exemption on the basis of one of more of the following:

I am employed and supervised by a member of the family law panel;

I have recent experience in teaching family law and the required practical skills;

I have specialized practical training and education in fields related to family law;

I have substantial experience as family court or FLIC duty counsel;

I have had substantial articling experience with a recognized family law practitioner.

I agree to acquire the minimum related experience within two years; attend training courses as required by the director general; and utilize mentoring as determined by the director general.

Part 2: Mandatory professional development

I shall complete a minimum of 6 hours of continuing legal education or the relevant equivalency in family law on an annual basis, as set out in section 2(1) or 2(2) of the Family Panel Standards.

I agree to comply on an ongoing basis with LAO's Family Panel Standards for admission and continued standing.

I understand that I must be a panel member and compliant with the standards to acknowledge a certificate.

By selecting this box I affirm that I have read and understood the panel standard requirements and that the information contained herein is complete, true and accurate.
