

Legal Aid Ontario hosts community meeting about legal services for Ontario's Black communities

Legal Aid Ontario (LAO) would like to invite you to a community meeting that it is holding to get input on legal services to the Black community.

LAO is beginning the important work of supporting the creation of a new, independent, Black-led clinic for people who identify as Black and would like to hear your views. LAO would also like to tell you about the services it is currently providing to increase access to justice for members of Ontario's Black community, including through partnerships with the Human Rights Legal support Centre, members of the private bar, and the Test Case Program.

If you are interested in participating in this community meeting, the details are as follows:

- Date: Wednesday September 27, 2017
- Time: 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.
- Location: Toronto Reference Library, 789 Yonge St, Toronto, ON

Legal Aid Ontario will provide TTC tokens for those who would like to attend and would require assistance with transportation costs.

An American Sign Language (ASL) interpreter will be interpreting the presentation for the audience.
